GGPLOT ADVANCED PLOTS FOR IST719

Rayanna Harduarsingh

Today we worked on a number of plots, mainly that extend ggplot's basic functionality

There has to be that one most popular wine in every region. These plots compare the sales of each wine by region. We can see some wines sell better in certain regions , while some do not. Wine does seem to be more popular in the east as sales in this region are higher than the others.
